The best Catholic Bible for teens!

leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and stayed at the place before them.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand. "When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. "By now it was already late and his disciples approached him and said, "Dismiss them so that they can go to the surrounding farms and villages and buy themselves something to eat." "He said to them in reply, "Give them some food yourselves." But they said to him, "Are we to buy two hundred denari's worth of food and give it to them to eat?" "He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" "Go and see." And when they had found out they said, "The loaves are five and there are two fish." "So he gave orders to have them sit down in groups on the green grass. "The people sat down in groups on the grass, and the two fish and loaves, and gave them to the crowd. "The people ate and were satisfied. "And they picked up twelve wicker baskets full of fragments and what was left of the fish. "Those who ate [of the loaves] were five thousand men.

The Walking on the Water. "Then he made his disciples get into the boat and precede him to the other side toward Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. "And when he had taken leave of them, he went off to the mountain to pray. "When it was evening, the boat was far out on the sea and he was alone on shore. "Then he saw that they were tossed about while rowing, for the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. "He meant to pass by them. "But when they saw him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out. "They had all seen him and were terrified. But at once he spoke with them. "Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid." "He got into the boat with them and the wind died down. They were [completely] astounded. "They had not understood the incident of the loaves. "On the contrary, their hearts were hardened."

The Healings at Gennesaret. "After making the crossing, they came to land at Gennesaret and tied up there. "As they were leaving the boat, people immediately recognized him. "They scattered about the surrounding country and began to bring in the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. "Wherever villages or towns or countryside he entered, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and begged him that they might touch only the tassel on his cloak; and as many as touched it were healed."

The Tradition of the Elders. "Now when the Pharisees with some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him, they observed that some of his disciples ate their bread with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands. "For the Pharisees and, in fact, all Jews, do not eat without carefully washing their hands, keeping the tradition of the elders. "And on coming from the marketplace they do not eat without purifying themselves. And

GROWING IN FAITH

Sources of Sin

Some people believe that spiritual depth is measured by how well certain rules or religious practices are followed. Jesus reminds us in Mark 7:14-15 that our greater concern ought to be with what is in our heart, because it is there that both our good and bad actions originate. Ultimately what is in our heart should have a greater effect on our spiritual lives than should outside sources, powerful forces.

Take time today to notice the outside sources in your life that have the potential to negatively affect your spiritual life. And, most important, notice what is truly in your heart.
